

AS PART OF THE CATHOLIC ARCHDIOCESE BRISBANE “GRACED TRADITION, SPIRITED FUTURE” CELEBRATIONS, THE SISTERS OF MERCY BRISBANE PROUDLY PRESENT

A CATHOLIC
MISCELLANY
TREASURES FROM 150 YEARS

In 1915 Brisbane clergyman Jeremiah O’Leary compiled “A Catholic Miscellany” – an early, comprehensively illustrated, account of the Brisbane Archdiocese. The publication remains a significant historical reference and contains “items of interest to Queenslanders, Irishmen, and Irish Australians.” This exhibition of treasures, commemorating 150 years of the Roman Catholic Diocese of Queensland, pays tribute to O’Leary’s seminal work.
