

Coordinator, Young Mercy Links Victoria

The Institute of Sisters of Mercy of Australia and Papua New Guinea (ISMAPNG) is looking for a dynamic young person to coordinate Young Mercy Links Victoria, part of a growing national Young Mercy Links network.

Young Mercy Links offers young people aged 18-30 a place to be with like-minded others who:

- Engage in action which gives life to gospel values,
- Reflect on faith, and the action it impels, and
- Grow their capacity for leadership in the spirit of Mercy.

If you're at home in the Mercy charism, can coordinate and animate young people to dream dreams of making the world a better place, are able to make and implement plans to bring those dreams to life, and can bring others with you on the journey, you could be just who we're looking for.

Qualifications, Experience & Competencies

- A commitment to uphold and support gospel values and Mercy ethos
- Experience working with young people (aged 18-30) energised by gospel justice
- Demonstrated ability to coordinate and animate young people in areas such as justice education, volunteering in the community, outreach, solidarity immersions and pilgrimages
- Ability to think strategically
- Strong written and verbal communication skills
- Ability to work collaboratively and independently
- Vision and enthusiasm for young adult ministry
- Competent administration skills relative to the role requirements, including management of program budget

For a copy of the position description, or more information about this role, please contact Ellen Geraghty, Director, Mission Integration, ISMAPNG, on ellen.geraghty@ismapng.org.au or telephone (02) 9564 2089.

To apply, send your application (CV and a cover letter demonstrating that you have the necessary qualifications, experience and competencies), to humanresources@ismapng.org.au by 8am on Monday, 14 October 2019.
