Human Trafficking: What are the facts and what would Catherine be saying to us today (21 May - AEST noon)

According to the latest 2016 Global Slavery Index, it is estimated that 45.8 million people are in some form of Modern Slavery in 167 countries. Australia is one of those countries and is a destination port.

In this conversational style presentation, learn about Australian Catholic Religious Against Trafficking in Humans (ACRATH) and what they have been doing to create awareness and provide education around this issue in our own backyards. See also what you can do to be a part of the solution to this problem.

Presenters: Lorraine Phelan RSM, ACRATH Regional Co-coordinator ACT/NSW; Angela Reed RSM, Head of Mercy Global Action and representative to the United Nations;
Christine Carolan, Executive Officer for ACRATH

* This webinar has been approved as accredited professional development for teachers in Catholic schools in VIC. Applications have also been submitted to the Catholic Education Offices in SA, WA and Cairns.
