

Catholic and Buddhist Perspectives of Mercy and Compassion

(20 August at 12noon AEST)

Join Sr Beryl Amedee RSM, a Sister of Mercy and Irena Skrzypczynski from the Ananda Buddhist Centre, as they explore mercy and compassion in the Catholic and Buddhist faith traditions in this 90-minute presentation.

Starting with the Catholic perspective of Buddhism as espoused by Vatican II, we explore what mercy and compassion mean in the two faith traditions. We learn about some key teachings in Buddhism, looking at the similarities and differences to Catholic teaching and explore meditation from the Christian and Buddhist perspectives.
