Member Testimonials

"I have really loved being a part of YML because I enjoy collaborating with like minded people and educating others about topics I'm passionate about."

- Jess

"Professional volunteering is not only important to giving back and developing yourself as a person, but also is creditable experience for any future job. Young Mercy Links has given me the networks and opportunities to be a leader in tackling real-world problems and expanding my individual agency, all whilst getting to work on projects I care about."

- Isabel

"Social justice works best in the meaningful connections made with people needing support and I find YML provides that safe space with a sense of community and engagement."

- Elise

"Young Mercy Links has helped me work on my leadership skills as well as giving me a sense of pride and achievement, knowing I'm supporting other people like me and helping my community!"

- Phoebe

A MOVEMENT OF
YOUNG PEOPLE GUIDED BY MERCY VALUES OF
COMPASSION, JUSTICE,
HOSPITALITY AND HOPE.

What do we do?

Our group is member led and each year will look different to the next. We base our initiatives on the passion and ideas of members and work to grow our members as leaders in Mercy. We have regular meetings to plan out our actions, with some of our previous undertakings including:

- Pampering in women's shelter
- Asylum seeker art exhibition
- Cambodia immersion
- Book launch fundraiser
- Detention Centre visits
- Diversity training
- Annual retreat
- Justice walks

Who are we?

Young Mercy Links is a social justice volunteer group of young adults who want to continue being active in this space post high school. We are a group of like minded individuals who are supported by the Sisters of Mercy and are shaped by the Mercy values of compassion, justice, hospitality and hope.
