

Greeting the Sun!

The background features a series of concentric, overlapping circles and lines in shades of light gray and white, creating a sense of depth and movement. The lines are thin and vary in opacity, some being solid and others dashed. The overall effect is reminiscent of ripples in water or light waves.

Slowly breathe your way through these images and feel the light radiating your moment of contemplation

