

Trees are indeed Blessed.

Blessed are trees with whom we share 50% of our DNA.

Blessed is our kinship with trees.

Photosynthesis providing earth with oxygen
and human respiration providing carbon dioxide.

Blessed is the vibrational energy felt when placing a hand upon a tree.

Blessed are those who advocate for and tell of the essential place of trees within earth's ecosystem.

Blessed is the beauty,
majestic presence
and generosity of trees.

Trees are indeed Blessed.

Blessed are trees with whom we share 50% of our DNA.

Blessed is our companionship with trees. Photosynthesis providing earth with oxygen and human respiration providing carbon dioxide.

Blessed is the vibrational energy felt when placing a hand upon a tree.

Blessed are those who advocate for and tell of the essential place of trees within earth's ecosystem.

Blessed is the beauty, majestic presence and generosity of trees.
